

10th Mountain Division Huts

The 10th Mountain Division Hut Association System is located in the White River and Pike-San Isabel National Forests under special permit with the Forest Service, U.S.D.A.

Scale: 1:24,000 • Contour Interval: 40 feet • GPS ± 100 meters 1927 North American datum (NAD 1927)

Hut and trailhead locations on this map were gathered in the field using WGS 84 mapping datum (to enable the highest accuracy), then converted to NAD 27 to be consistent with map datum. Select the correct map datum when using your GPS. Refer to 10th Mountain's website for the most current coordinates

Trails are marked intermittently by blue diamonds, except in U.S. Forest Service designated Wilderness Areas where trails are marked by tree blazes. Trailheads are not marked. U.S.F.S. trails and roads are not always maintained and their exact location may vary. This map is not a substitute for good route-finding skills. This map is an aid to help finding routes. These are suggested routes only. Hazards exist in the backcountry, including avalanches. Common sense and good judgment can reduce but not eliminate these hazards.

This map is for winter use only.
